F. 621 Personal History

Mrs. Reque's father came to America from Voss, in the province of Bergen, Norway at the age of six week, in the year 1841. Her grandmother came in the year 1845 at the age of six years.

Mrs. Reque's grandfather came as far as Racine by boat, left his wife and two children there and then proceeded to Cambridge by foot. In Cambridge he bought a horse and wagon and then returned to Racine for his family. he then returned to Lake Koshkonong where he bought land. The first winter the family lived in a one room dug out which was shared with five bachelors. [?]
